OF YOUR STAY

FAWSLEY HALL
— HOTEL & SPA —
FAWSLEY, NORTHAMPTONSHIRE

SHAPE YOUR BREAK

We are delighted to welcome you to Fawsley Hall, where we invite you to reconnect, unwind, and make our house your home.

All year round you will be spoilt for choice for things to do within the hotel, not to mention the abundance to see and do on our doorstep.

Below are just a few of the things you can discover during your stay.
This is your time – how will you spend it?

IN THE HOTEL

Arriving at Fawsley Hall is just the start of a unique experience...

Dining

There is a host of delicious food and drink experiences to try at our country estate:

The Cedar Restaurant

Our 2 AA Rosette Restaurant offers an intimate and relaxing setting to enjoy a menu of classic British dishes, enhanced with a contemporary twist.

Tudor Great Hall

The Tudor Great Hall is a special feature of any stay at Fawsley Hall. High ceilings and full-height windows with far-reaching views create a sense of grandeur fit for any occasion.

Tudor Bar

Our Tudor Bar is located in the hotel's West Wing and was originally the estate's brewhouse. Today, this cosy space provides a warm and inviting place to kick off your shoes and enjoy some relaxation time.

Alfresco Dining

If it's a nice day, dine alfresco on the terrace or pick up a picnic hamper filled with tasty treats and pick a sunny spot in our extensive grounds.

Private dining

Make your dining experience extra special and ask us about our private dining rooms:

- Salvin Longroom
- Salvin Boardroom
- Tudor Room

The Spa at Fawsley Hall

Enjoy some 'me time' in the newly-refurbished spa and health club, where we offer:

- Spa and treatment rooms
- Indoor swimming pool and outdoor hydrotherapy pool
- Sauna and steam rooms
- Himalayan Salt Sauna

WALKS

Surrounded by 2,000 acres of beautiful countryside with glittering lakes and streams, you are in a rambler's paradise.

Fawsley to the Church of St Mary - under 1 mile

We are lucky enough to be surrounded by an abundance of parkland landscaped by Capability Brown, with manicured gardens and glittering lakes. To give you a feel of the landscape without going too far, take a stroll down the hill to St Mary's Church, where you will find one of the lakes to the right.

Fawsley to Badby - approx. 2.3 miles

With its ironstone cottages, thatched roofs and village greens, the lovely village of Badby is said to be one of the prettiest in the county. Choose either of the routes on this useful map for a pleasant walk into Badby, including the Knightley Trail, with places to look out for on the way.

Badby Woods - various routes

Found on the way to Badby from Fawsley Hall, and owned by the Fawsley Estate, Badby Woods is open to the public and is famous for its Bluebells. You enter the wood through what is left of a fantastic gatehouse. These woods are also a Site of Special Scientific Interest.

Everdon Stubbs - various routes - 4 miles from Fawsley Hall

A 72 acre ancient woodland with a mix of English and sessile oak, lowland birch, sweet chestnut and sycamore. A prehistoric Saxon burial site remains on the site's northern boundary along with a host of other archaeological features found across the woodland. Various routes can be found here.

Drayton Reservoir - 8k circular route - 8 miles from Fawsley Hall

This reservoir is popular with the local angling community and is a picturesque place for a walk. The circular route is 8k, although various routes can be found here.

Daventry Country Park - 5k circular route - 7 miles from Fawsley Hall

There are circular, way-marked trails through the woodlands and meadows that surround the reservoir, with bird hides to stop and view the wildlife. With an adventure playground, outdoor gym equipment, numerous picnic spots, a nature trail and a wealth of wildlife, Daventry Country Park is a great family day out.
